

BOOM FOR GOVERNOR

JUDGE R. G. WILLIAMS

The above is a picture of our good friend, Judge R. G. Williams, of Covington, Kentucky. His many friends over the state are earnestly urging him to become a candidate for the high office of Governor. Many nice things are being said of him. Among them is the following editorial from the Interior Journal with which we heartily agree:

THE MAN FOR THE PLACE.

As it is well known to our readers, the Interior Journal has manifested no choice in the selection of a democratic nominee for Governor, nor is it now especially doing so. It has never aspired to be the counsellor, dictator or leader of democracy, and is not now attempting that role. It has been and will continue to be, content to serve and advocate the election of the nominees of the party it has always loved. We believe, however, that the time has arrived to offer a suggestion in the matter of selecting a nominee for the governorship, and in doing so let it be understood, no reflection is cast upon any of the gentlemen who have announced their candidacy for that honor.

It seems to be a foregone conclusion that Edwin P. Morrow will be the Republican nominee—a brilliant stump speaker and active campaigner. To meet this man, democracy must put its best foot foremost, and the Interior Journal, though it has consulted no one, believes it has the man.

Some 45 years ago there was born in Rockcastle County, Richard G. Williams. He grew to manhood, surrounded by republicans and republicanism. He saw and studied that party's principle, but it did not suit him. He saw and studied the lesson handed down by Thomas Jefferson, and the tenets of that great statesman appealed to him, and "Dick" Williams became a democrat before he became of legal age. With no hope, nay with no thought of political preference, he fought the fight year in and year out; practiced law for a living and pleaded the cause of democracy for the principle involved.

When less than 25 years of age, there appeared on the political horizon of Rockcastle county, discontent over the selection of certain republican candidates for office. The people demanded a change, but who would be the Moses to lead them out of the wilderness was the question on every man's lips.

Old men, tried and true in every walk of life, had watched the course of the young stripling, Williams. They had learned that he had the two most vital requisites of a man—a clean, brave heart, and a powerful, brilliant mind. In their dilemma they sought this man, and prevailed upon him to become a candidate for county judge. To "Dick" Williams the idea of overcoming a republican majority of nearly a thousand, seemed preposterous, but he consented to make the fight for the betterment of conditions. And he did fight and win. Furious at the victory, his enemies sought to cripple and intimidate his administration, and every means fair or foul, was used against him. But they reckoned without their host. Williams had the courage of his hardy ancestors, and he made an able, clean and impartial judge. At the end of his term he turned the office back to the people who gave it, honored and respected by all.

His ability as a lawyer and speaker soon attracted wide attention, and he moved to the city of Covington, where he now resides. His charming personality, coupled with his talents drew the public's attention to him again, and he was twice elected Commonwealth's attorney, discharging the duties of that office with the integrity, ability and ease, that characterized his administration as judge of the Rockcastle court.

Mr. Williams' life is clean. He possesses the ability to form a clear conviction, the courage to express that conviction, and what is more, and greater still, he has the honor to stand by it.

Free from entangling party factions, gifted and ready in debate, young, vigorous and active, courageous to the point of daring, and the soul of honor, "Dick" Williams is the embodiment of a true knight of democracy, and in him we would have a man capable of defending his party upon the hustings, and for whom no apology would have to be made.

The Interior Journal does not know that he could be prevailed upon to make the race, but it does know that no stronger, cleaner, abler man could be found in the State, nor one who could be looked upon with a greater degree of pride than this product of mountain democracy, Richard G. Williams.

We surely join the Editor of the Interior Journal in the sentiments of this article. It would be difficult to speak in too high terms of Judge Williams. He deserves all that has been said of him. He is splendid timber, out of which to make the State's chief Executive. Should he enter the race, and be nominated, he will be able to cope with Morrow on or off the stump.

We are sure that many folks both far and near would like to donate plants and etc, toward beautifying this plot of earth and Mr. A. E. Albright, President, and Mr. O. R. HENRY BAKER DIES IN GERMANY.

Evacuation Hospital No. 7.
American E. F.
Prum, Germany.
Dec. 22, 1918.

Mrs. Margaret Baker,
Withers, Ky., U. S. A.
My dear Mrs. Baker:

You have surely, of course learned by this time of the death of your son, Henry, and I write to extend to you my sympathy in your bereavement.

I visited with Henry as he lay in the hospital here with the serious gunshot wound in his abdomen, with which very skillful surgeons struggled to bring him through to health and strength again. But it was of no avail for the injury was too great and slowly weakened and passed away.

It seems rather strange that he should be out in the battle and be wounded there, recover from that wound and then die from an accidental gunshot wound received after being back in his Company again. But such are the strange things that happen everywhere, just as much at home as in the army, perhaps more.

The body of your boy is buried in the little cemetery here, with Christian prayers and military honors. The United States Government Grave Registration Service will take perfect care of the grave, and when the time comes, will ship the body home again for burial in the home-land.

My heart is with you at this time. I well understand the grief that accompanies every such sorrow. But yet, we have the blessed Lord's promise of the greater Life to come. He has said that no greater love hath any man than this, that he lay down his life for his friends. Henry did not die in battle, or from battle, but he fought just as hard in the battle as if he had, and he has given his life just as certainly as any one who has died in this great cause of the world's righteousness. Because the nation possessed men of Henry's calibre that the foe that sought to crush the world has himself been crushed instead.

God bless you dear woman, and may the comfort of the gospel of our Saviour bring the joy to you as you come to feel the tears being wiped away and realize that you are one of the women who have made the great sacrifice and has given a son to the world for the sake of its freedom and righteousness.

Sincerely yours,
LESLIE C. KELLEY,
Chaplain, U. S. A.

Enclosed is letter Henry wrote to you, dictating it to me, as he was too weak to write. It says as follows: Dear Mother, I am in the hospital at Prum, Germany. I was accidentally shot the other day. This is my second wound. As soon as I get better I will write to you. Lots of love from your loving son, Henry.

This is Wilson Baker's son.

KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION

ANNOUNCEMENTS

We are authorized to announce

as a candidate for Representative from the Seventieth Legislative district, composed of Rockcastle and Laurel counties, subject to the action of the Republican party at its primary election on August 2, 1919.

During the last year there has been a falling off in the attendance upon almost every Sunday School in Kentucky. Of course, there were reasons for this. Large numbers had been called away from home because of the war; many others were so interested in war measures that they neglected the regular work of Sunday School. Now that we have entered upon the new year strenuous efforts must be made not only to bring our Sunday Schools back to their normal condition but to move forward.

April will be observed all over the state as Visitation Day. Plans are being made in large numbers of communities and it is hoped that these plans will extend to the entire state to visit every home finding the church and Sunday School preferences, giving invitations, in the name of all Sunday Schools in the communities, to become members of some Sunday School. For particulars write to the Kentucky Sunday School Association, 712 Louisville Trust Building, Louisville, Kentucky.

April 27 to May 4, 1919 will be Children's Week. This will be a Continent-Wide Campaign to emphasize the religious education of children. The recent world war has attracted the attention of all patriotic men and women to the enormous value of childhood and the urgent need of conserving the young life of a nation if that nation is to live. But, strong clean bodies and well-trained minds alone can never make democracy safe for the world. Something else is needed and that is trained conscience and will; consciences which know right from wrong as defined by the Christ, and wills which can force selfish mortals to obey their consciences, to deny themselves and follow the great Master in service to others. At least thirteen millions of the twenty-five millions of children under twelve years of age are receiving no religious education whatever. In May 1917, under the direction of the Christian Sunday School Association, a Continent-Wide Cradle Roll Week was observed for the purpose of emphasizing the Christian nurture of babies. This led to thousands of babies being enrolled as Cradle Roll members of the Sunday Schools of the United States, and thousands of mothers and fathers became interested in the church life. This led to the observance of Children's Week in 1918. The success of the study of childhood during that week and the bringing together of parents and teachers in the Sunday Schools and public schools brought whole communities to thinking of the spiritual need of their children. In 1919 an interesting program for the week has been prepared and can be secured from the Kentucky Sunday School Association.

May 4th will be Kentucky's Go-to-Sunday-School Day. It should be a "Victory Drive" this year. The Kentucky Sunday School Association originated this day in 1914, and in one year forty thousand new pupils were added to the Sunday Schools of the state. Great progress was made each year until 1918, when because of war conditions there was a falling off in the attendance at Sunday Schools all over the United States. This year the call is made to every Sunday School in the state to observe the day. Community committees will be organized and it is hoped that one hundred thousand additions will be made to the Sunday Schools of the state.

There are about 4500 Sunday Schools in the State of Kentucky. The influenza closed all of the schools for a while. Many of them have never started again. There should be a rally in every section of the state and by May 4th every Sunday School should be opened and putting forth special efforts to make up for the lost time.

LEE CHANDLER IN FRANCE

Bourges, France,

Dec. 26, 1918.

Dear Father and Mother:—
I rec'd your letter of Nov. 26 today and was glad to get it and hear that all of you had gotten well again. I didn't know that uncle Dick had had so much tough luck. Charley told me about him spraining his knee but didn't know it was anything very serious. Christmas went off quietly here and I believe about all of us enjoyed it well, considering the fact that all of us are a good way from home and more than half for the first time on Christmas. There was no work on Christmas day, except the cooks, etc., and they certainly did hump themselves. The old mess kit was heaping full for dinner and I had to cram some in my pocket. We had turkey, all we could eat, potatoes, rice, peas, pickles, biscuits and doughnuts, and I don't think a single one of us could have eaten more. The Y. M. C. A. and Red Cross also distributed tobacco, cigarettes, candy, etc. to everybody and made it seem to a certain degree like Christmas. The boys with our section of the office went to town for supper Xmas Eve, and I enjoyed the evening fine. There were twenty-two of us. We had our pictures taken in a group and I will send you one as soon as they are finished. I work in the section of the office where the records of the Aviators are kept, have been there for about six months. We keep a record of every man when he moves from one place to another, when he gets sick and sent to a hospital and we are supposed to be able to locate any man on short order.

As to how long any of us will be here I don't suppose anybody knows. Even if we were to be sent home as soon as transportation could be arranged it would be a good while before all would be across. We can always hear rumors among the boys, of course none of them know about those things, but I am inclined to believe that the outfit will go home with the last half of the men, altho that's my own personal opinion. I would like very much to be home of course, but I do not worry over the matter the least bit and hope none of you do, as it's no use, and I consider that we are all very, very, lucky if every one of us are held in the service for the next two years, altho there's no likelihood of that.

I have never had a leave or furlough since I was at home, which is a year ago tomorrow. None of our company have been able to get one until a few weeks ago a few got a seven days pass. I believe that most of us will be able to get one before long if nothing happens. I suppose you have seen accounts of the leave areas, etc., in the papers, I hear they have some fine places. I had a copy of the Pathfinder from Lizzie a few days ago dated Nov. 24. She has sent quite a number of them from time to time and I think they all finally strolled in altho this one came much sooner than any of the others. I suppose you got my letter telling you that I received the box, if not I got it O. K. and was glad to get it. Every bit of it was in good shape and the candy went fine too. I haven't written to grandmother yet, but will soon you can tell me what I got the socks, and will write her soon. I have never been to Lodge. There are a lot of members in our outfit and I understand they are to have a social meeting Tuesday night and I guess I'll go along. Let me hear from you often and if there is anything you want me to tell you about ask me. As the things around me have all got old and I can't think of anything that would be interesting to you. The censor has just about took the lit off now and it's a good deal less trouble for us fellows to write letters.

Love from,
Your Son,

ROAD TAX ELECTION.

As I was a strong advocate of the 20 cent road tax that was to have been voted on March 15th, and having written several parties in the county, giving it as my opinion that it would be to the best interest of the people to vote for this tax, I feel that since the election is called off, it is proper that I should give my reasons for endorsing the action of the Fiscal Court in calling off the election.

We understood the law with reference to state aid being procured for other roads than inter-county seat roads, and no aid could be procured from the state for other than constructing these roads, and these roads being hard surface roads, and would have been of no value to us to vote a 20 road tax, and cut down the general road fund levy, and feeling that the people were not inclined to increase their tax the present year, the promise that had been made the voters could not have been carried out without an increase in tax rate. Under these circumstances, the carrying of this election would not have helped us, and only incurred the expense of an election on the tax payers. I believe, however, the Fiscal Court will make every endeavor within their power to improve the county roads and help to complete the roads now under construction.

HOPE WELL
Jack Norton and family, of Wab. were with the former's brother, Mitchell Norton, Saturday night. Edd and Jas. Fletcher, of Tennessee, came in last Thursday to attend the burial of their father, Mr. John Fletcher. Miss Sallie Sowder spent Saturday night and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Ambros Hasty. Geo. Perciful, of this place has moved to Mt. Vernon. Miss Sibyl Cummins is visiting Mrs. John Fletcher. This part was visited by a hard rain and wind storm last Thursday evening. The small child of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Cummins is numbered with the sick. Mrs. John Fletcher, who was reported sick last week is no better. An infant of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Evans, died last week. Mrs. Clara Carmical, spent Wednesday with her mother, Mrs. A. Cummings, at Mt. Vernon. Miss Julia Payne spent several days with her sister, Mrs. Lizzie Moses at Mt. Vernon. John Payne is building a house near W. M. Arnold's and will have it ready to move into in a few days. Mrs. Lula Clontz and son, George Clontz, of Harlan, have returned home after spending several days with relatives at this place and Mt. Vernon. George Brown and Roscoe McKinney, of the Freedom section, were in this part a few days ago buying cattle and hogs. William Miller is very sick. Banling ties seems to be the order of the day in this part and the farmers in general are getting ready to sow their oats. Russell Carmical has a very sore foot caused by a burn which he had several days ago. Died, February 26th, Mr. John Fletcher after an illness of only four days. He leaves a wife and four children. Besides a host of friends and relatives to mourn his death. He was fifty-five years old. All who knew him know him to be a an honest and hard working man and he will be greatly missed by the entire family. The burial took place Friday at eleven o'clock at the McClure burying ground.

WHY COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.
You are often told to "beware of a cold," but why? We will tell you: Every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality and paves the way for a more serious disease. People who contract pneumonia first take cold. The longer a cold hangs on, the greater the danger, especially from the germ diseases, as a cold prepares the system for the reception and development of the germs of consumption, diphtheria, scarlet fever and whooping cough. The quicker you get rid of your cold, the less the danger of contracting one of the diseases. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has a great reputation as a cure for colds and can be depended upon. It is pleasant to take.

EVERYBODY IS NOW FIGURING INCOME TAX

In Order to Be Helpful to Public,
Internal Revenue Bureau
Has Every Available
Officer in Field.

SEVERE PENALTIES IF YOU DELAY BEYOND MARCH 15

With the due date for Income Taxes only a few weeks away, the collection of this far-reaching tax on 1918 incomes has started off with a bang. Everybody is figuring income tax. Payments and sworn statements of income must reach Internal Revenue offices on or before March 15, and there are severe penalties for delinquency.

Residents of Kentucky should make their returns and pay their taxes to the nearest of the following: Josh T. Griffith, Owensboro; J. Rogers Gore, Louisville; Charlton B. Thompson, Covington; Elwood Hamilton, Lexington; John W. Hughes, Danville.

"Pay your Income Tax by March 15," is the slogan of the Internal Revenue Bureau, which has sent every available officer into the field to help the public to understand the requirements and to prepare the returns.

Who Must Make Return.

It is estimated that many thousands of single and married persons in this section of the United States who have never before made annual returns are required to do so this year.

Income tax returns must be made between now and March 15 by persons who come under the following classifications:

Any unmarried person whose 1918 net income was $1,000 or over. Widows and widowers, divorcees and married persons who are living apart from their husbands or wives, are for the purposes of the Income Tax classed as unmarried.

Any married person living with wife or husband whose 1918 net income was $2,000 or over. The income of both husband and wife must be considered together with the earnings of minor children, if any.

Revenue Bureau Offers Aid.

Each person in the United States who is in either of these classifications must get busy at once if penalties are to be avoided. He should secure blank Form 1010 A for reporting net income up to $5,000, or Form 1040 if his net income exceeded that amount. Forms are being distributed by Collectors and their Deputies, also by banks following the instructions on the forms a correct return can be prepared at home. If a person needs advice, the Deputy Collectors in the field will furnish it without charge.

The new Revenue law places the Income Tax duty on citizens and residents. The Internal Revenue Bureau is sending its men to work right with the public to get the tax and the returns in. With active co-operation every tax due March 15 will be paid and every return required by law will be in the Revenue offices on time.

Exemptions Are Allowed.

A single person is allowed a personal exemption of $1,000. If he is supporting in his household relatives who are dependent upon him he may claim the status of the head of a family who has the same exemption as if married.

A married person who lives with wife or husband is allowed a personal exemption of $2,000. The head of a family is entitled to claim a similar personal exemption.

An additional exemption of $200 is allowed for each person under eighteen or incapable of self-support who was dependent upon and received his chief support from the taxpayer.

A husband and wife living together are entitled to but one personal exemption of $2,000. If they make separate returns the exemption may be claimed by either or divided.

Accuracy Required.

Absolute accuracy is necessary in making up income figures. Any person who is working for wages should find out exactly how much he received during the whole year 1918. Fees, bank interest, bond interest, dividends, rents received and all other items must be reported correctly. Mere guesses are not accepted, for they are unjust alike to the taxpayer and the Government and defeat the proper administration of the law.

THIS TELLS HOW TO FIGURE INCOME TAX

Squarely Up to Every Individual to Get Busy by March 15 or Suffer Penalty.

"Don't wait until the final due date, March 15th, for paying your Income Tax and making your return. Avoid the last minute push. Any person can figure out his liability today as well as he can next week, and if there is any point on which he needs advice he can now get in touch with a Revenue man."

This word of advice is being given out by Internal Revenue men. Returns and payments are being collected in Kentucky by the following Collectors of Internal Revenue:

Josh T. Griffith,
J. Rogers Gore,
Charlton B. Thompson,
Elwood Hamilton,
John W. Hughes.

Every aid of their offices and field forces is being given freely to the public.

But the Income Tax men will not pull your door-bell or your coat-tails, according to the Collector's announcement. It is squarely up to every individual to figure out his own case and to get busy if he comes within the scope of the new Revenue law.

Did You Earn This Much?

Every unmarried person who received income averaging $19.25 a week during 1918 and every married couple who jointly received income averaging $38.50 a week should secure at once from the nearest Deputy Collector or the nearest bank a blank Form 1040 A. That form contains the information he will need to enable him to figure his correct net income and any tax that he owes the Government.

The law requires that every unmarried person who had a net income of $1,000 or over and every married person whose net income was $2,000 or over (including the income of husband or wife and the earnings of minor children, if any) must make a return on or before March 15th. And this requirement does not hinge on whether the person owes a tax.

Taxable Income.

An individual must include under gross income all gains, profits and income derived from salaries, wages or compensation for personal service of whatever kind and in whatever form and from professional, vocational, business, sales or dealings in property of all kinds, interest, rent, dividend or profits derived from any source whatever. Very few items of income are exempt.

Deductions include ordinary and necessary business expenses, interest paid or accrued on indebtedness, taxes of all kinds except Federal income tax, excess profits taxes and assessments for local benefits, losses actually sustained, debts incurred to be worth less and depreciation on buildings, machinery, fixtures, etc., used in business. A further deduction is allowed for contributions to corporations operated for religious, charitable, scientific or educational purposes or for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals to an amount not exceeding 15 per cent of the taxpayer's net income as computed without the benefit of the contribution deduction.

The taxpayer is not allowed to deduct any personal, living or family expense, any amount spent for improving property or making good its exhaustion for which an allowance is claimed under depreciation.

Figuring the Tax.

Before figuring the normal tax the dividends are deducted as credits from net income, together with the personal exemption. As in previous years, dividends of domestic corporations are exempt from normal tax when received by the stockholder.

The normal tax rates for citizens and residents are as follows: On the first $4,000 of net income in excess of the credits the rate is 6 per cent; on any further taxable income the rate is 12 per cent.

The surtax rates apply to net income of each individual in excess of $5,000. The personal exemption and the dividends are not deductible before computing surtax. In the case of returns by husband and wife, the net income of each is considered separately in computing any surtax that may be due. Form 1040 should be used in making returns of net income exceeding $5,000, and the instructions on this form will show how to figure the surtax.

Business House Returns.

Employers and others who pay wages, salaries, rents, interest or similar determinable gains in an amount of $1,000 or over during 1918 to any person must file an information return with the Government. Blanks may be secured from the Collector.

Every partnership must file a return showing its income and deductions and the name and address of each partner with his share of the profits or losses during the past year. Personal service corporations will file similar information for 1918.

INCOME TAX PAYS

FOR PUBLIC BENEFITS.

"Viewed in its largest and truest sense, the payment of taxes is payment for benefits received or expected. Only from a narrow and essentially selfish and shortsighted viewpoint can the individual be made to himself the evasion of the liability as a desirable course of action." Daniel C. Roper, Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

THE slogan for the last two years has been "Win the War." We have accomplished that, and the slogan now is, "Build a Home."

The human heart has no affection more enduring than the love of home. No normal human being knows the full measure of contentment until he becomes a dweller within a comfortable home of his very own.

The boys who have borne the blunt of the war's hardships are coming back with a new and deeper love for home. If the question were put to them they would answer unanimously: "Build a Home First."

To The Taxpayers of Rockcastle County:

This article is intended to explain why the election called by the Fiscal Court of this county for the purpose of voting a 20 cent road tax has been called off. The Road Commissioner, Mr. Wiley, and his District Engineer, evidently misunderstood the meaning of the 20 cent road tax, and issued literature to the effect that this tax could be used on any county road and in any Magisterial District and get the benefit of State aid, or $3.00 for one. Believing that the Road Commissioner was correct in his understanding of the law, and being urged by Mr. Johnson, the District Engineer, the Fiscal Court called this election. However, since then further investigation has been made and we discovered that the 20 cent road tax is an additional tax and no State Aid can be obtained by the expenditure of this tax unless it is used on inter-county seat, or State Aid roads. The court had promised the people not to increase the tax and that the fund thus secured would be used on all the roads of the county and State Aid obtained thereby for all the roads, but finding that the Commissioner and his Engineer were in error, we thought best not to have the election, but proceed as heretofore under the general levy. We find that if the money thus secured under the general levy, is used on inter-county seat, or State Aid roads, we will obtain the benefit of State Aid, or $3.00 for one. Furthermore, on investigation we find that the levy on application by the county through the Fiscal Court, permits the State to construct the inter-county seat, or State Aid roads by the use of convict labor, which will be charged to the county out of the pro rata State Aid to which the county will be entitled by reason of paying the 5 cents tax provided for under the general State Aid Road Law. The Fiscal Court at a meeting held last Tuesday, not only called off the 20 cent road election, but made application to the Road Commissioner to finish the inter-county seat roads as provided by that law. So it is the intention of the Fiscal Court to go on with this road work and have the State to finish the State Aid roads this year.

The Camp Fire Girls, Miss Aultman Captain, had a very pleasant outing Wednesday. They hiked to Sand Springs, went through the mines, had lunch on the way and hiked back home before dark. They traveled in all about nine miles and some of them were pretty tired, yet they felt that the days outing was worth all the energy and effort that it cost. They are planning a weeks outing on the Cooper farm near the river in May. There are eighteen members of the Camp Fire Girls and they are certainly a jolly bunch. Miss Gibson, of Langdon Memorial School, accompanied the girls on their hike Wednesday.

Don't wait until spring but give us your order now and we promise you prompt delivery.

EARL LEECE

WRITES FROM FRANCE

Dec. 10, 1918

Mr. and Mrs. G. Leece,
Crab Orchard, Ky.

Dear Father and Mother:—

This morning while thinking of you I will try and write you a few lines. This leaves me feeling fine. I weigh about 200 lbs, so you may know I am feeling good. I hope you are well. I have just took a bath and washed my clothes. We have a good place to stay now. It is not cold here yet. The ground has only been frozen once, so you can see how cold it is. It rains lots here. We may move from here soon. Well, I guess you are done gathering corn. I had a letter from Sig a few days ago. He was going to begin husking corn the next week. I hope the flu is checked by now. We sit around the fire at nights and talk about home. We think we will be home by March or April. That is our belief, of course we can't tell. We have plenty of good warm clothes. I will tell you the names of some of the places I have been since I came to France. We were in Halifax the 4th of July and from there we went to Liverpool, England on the ship Rhesus, camping in England's rest camp, Knotty Ash. Leaving Camp July 16, 3 p. m., by railroad arriving in Camp Moon Hill near Winchester, England's English rest camp on July 17, 3 p. m.

Dress Up TIME

You can't wait until Easter before you get your spring clothes this year. The spring season will be well under way before the holiday is scheduled.

That's why we completed our spring suit displays earlier than usual. All of the very latest styles in Clothing, Hats, Shirts, Shoes and Furnishings, many models designed in "after-the-war" effects, are shown here now. Special "Dress-Up" displays.

THE CASH STORE—BETWEEN THE BANKS

July 18, we arrived in South Hampton, England and embarked on the ship St. George, when we crossed the English Channel arriving in Cherbourg, France July 19, 3:30 a. m. July 20 the 112 ammunition train loaded on train for Southern France; arrived in Villeneuve D. Amon, July 23; pitched camp on a French Chatton near Pont De La May, Aug. 2. We hiked from Pont De La May to Camp Shuge, one of the largest artillery camps in France. Our train left Camp De Sauge Sept. 28 for some where near the front, passing through Bordeaux, Pargmont, Virgon, Orleans, Paris, Chateau Thierry, landing and unloading at Mussy Oct. 1, camping in billets. The trip was made on train. We left Vassing cart driving overland to Revigny where we loaded on train, landing in Faurd Oct. 10. Camping three kilometers north of Pampey in the woods leaving the woods near Pampey Oct. 14, arriving in Marabank billeting in old Theater. We left Marabank Oct. 22 and arrived in Monas Cort, camping in the woods on the St. Charles Farm Oct. 26. We moved to Amblimont near St. Mihiel, traveling on land. Oct. 29 we moved to Ambly near the Verdun front and this is where we are now. I heard the last gun fire. I was out grazing the mules when the firing stopped and the band began to play America and I must say it sounded good. We are now living in France up stairs. I will close with love and best wishes to all, so good bye.

PERUNA A Wonderful Remedy

FOR EFFECTS OF LA GRIFFE

Read His Letter
"I have suffered for the last two winters with that terrible disease, LaGrippe. Having often heard of the great value of Peruna I decided to try it. I have only used four bottles and I do not now have any bad effects from the Grippe as it has just about entirely disappeared, and my general health is good. I am satisfied that Peruna is a wonderful remedy, and I do most heartily endorse and recommend it for LaGrippe."

GEORGE ALLEN IN GERMANY

Somewhere in Germany.
January 15, 1919.

Dear mother:—

Will answer your letter I have just received. It was very old. It was written August 29, but you know I was glad to get it. I am well and hope you all are the same. I will tell you where I have been. I was only here two weeks until I went in trenches, but I was lucky. I didn't get a scratch, but I sure did have some close calls. I often thought I would never see the old states again. I have seen them killed from my side. I often thought of you and Mrs. Scott when I was lying in the mud up to my knees, dodging machine guns. Mamma, I knew you and Mrs. Scott were praying for me, and I believe your prayers were with me. You don't know how a poor boy's mind will lead out to different thoughts when he is expecting to get killed at any time. Any one can be a soldier in the old states, but it means something to be a soldier over here in France. I tell you when you are expecting to get killed you will think of a million things, but the greatest thought of all, I would never get to tell mamma good bye. That stuck me deeper than anything, but I can say this the time is coming when I can tell you all hello again. I long for that sweet day. Listen, Mamma, don't you all worry about me, don't you even think that I am not having a good time. A soldier has a better time than any body, when there is n't any war. Believe me it was some dark looking time Nov. 10. We crossed the Meuse river and went over on the Huns. We captured three Germans that night and they told us that the war was over at 11 o'clock, but we didn't believe them until the Huns quit firing, but it took all of that to show Kaiser Bill where he stood. We were in one hundred yards of the Germans when the guns stopped firing. We sure have canned the Kaiser. Well, I'll tell you where I am. I came through France, Belgium and Lindensburg and am now in the middle of Germany and I am having some time. I can't say when I will come home. How is papa, Lee, Clara and Omer by now? I must close as it is time to go to bed. Answer soon and a long letter.

Your loving son,
GEORGE W. ALLEN.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts through the blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Anti-Bootlegging Committee

In last week's issue, we reported some cases which should be of general interest to the people interested in suppressing the sale of whiskey. Special interest should be directed to the number of cases acquitted that were represented by attorneys. This bears out the theory that it is more in the hands of the lawyers of this county than any one else, and if they will persist in defending bootleggers who have a Court record, we will continue to have the guilty go unpunished, so the pressure should be kept up and endeavor should be made to have our attorneys serve notice on their clients that no one with a court record as a bootlegger, who had been convicted or acquitted, need apply to them for their services. We feel that our lawyers are competent to make a living out of their profession without accepting this class of cases, and if they think of the matter as we see it, these cases are not important from a legal standpoint. There is nothing about defending a bootlegger that shows the legal talent of any lawyer, and nine out of every ten cases are simply a matter of producing evidence that would make a shadow of an excuse for acquitting the defending on the grounds of a reasonable doubt. The remaining part of the legal ability necessary is to study the men summoned on the jury and find that the jury accepted is composed of men inclined to be sympathetic with any fellow man who is in trouble, and one who serving in other cases has proved to the satisfaction of the lawyer for the defendant that they are strong on a reasonable doubt. I suppose to be ethical to a client, when a lawyer has accepted a case, it is his duty to pick a jury which he believes will decide in favor of his client. The lawyer cannot be criticized for so doing, but we do believe that the lawyers of this county should be interested in the general welfare of the county to such an extent that they would jointly agree not to accept these cases, and thereby avoid the need of being placed in an attitude of being a party to framing up reasonable doubt evidence, and strike good honest conscientious citizens from a jury in order to retain jury-men who are more willing to believe the story of the defendant and his friends, than to believe the witness who in the vast majority of cases is forced to testify in the case. The men who buy whiskey in this county do not voluntarily go and indict the man who sells them the whiskey.

THE GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE

The Government printing office itself occupies thirteen and one-half acres of ground in the City of Washington. It employs

5,000 persons, and the annual payroll is nearly $5,000,000. There are 240 type-setting machines, the largest number of such machines assembled at any one place in the world. There are 159 presses employed and 700 electric motors. The machine equipment of the plant is valued at $2,600,000. The type metal cast into ingots each day amounts to twelve and a half tons. The equipment also includes nearly one hundred linotype machines, five of which are located in the branch printing section at the Library of Congress. The bindery contains about one hundred machines of the latest approved type for the various operations in the modern binding process. So much for the plant. The figures of output are equally amazing. For example 1,800,000 type pages are set in a year, and this number of type pages is said to be greater than the annual output of all the book publishing houses in the United States. Last year 49,647,371 publications were wrestitched and 2,600,938 books bound. These bound books, if placed end to end, would cover a distance of 400 miles. The speeches annually printed for Members of Congress number approximately 25,000,000. The quantity of franked governmental mail (largely printed matter) received each day by the Washington City post office is estimated at 150 tons—Reviews of

Demobilization Conference

There will be a Conference held at the Court House in

MT. VERNON
March 18th & 19th

The purpose is to improve the social condition of the community life.

THERE WILL BE THREE SESSIONS EACH DAY,
as follows: 10 a.m. to 12M—2 p.m. to 4 p.m.—
7:30 p.m. to 9 p.m.

The State Y. M. C. A. will furnish three men for this conference. Mr. D. H. Lyon will be here as Secretary of this District. Chaplain S. P. Stapp and the Rev. Mr. Scott will be the principal speakers. Chaplain Stapp was a Baptist minister when he went into the service as Captain. He is just back from France and has an interesting message. Mr. Scott is minister of the First Christian church at Somerset and is one of the most interesting speakers in this part of the State.

Please remember that this conference is for the whole of Rockcastle County. One like it is being held in each county of the State.

There will be a banquet on Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock. The plates will be 50c each to civilians and FREE to SOLDIERS. During the banquet hour, there will be short speeches—many of them by returned soldiers. We hope to have many civilians at this banquet, but we are very anxious to have all the soldiers of the county as our guests.

YOU SHOULD HAVE ONE

IN every country of the world they are to-day doing their share to make life more worth living and to raise humanity to a higher plane.

For them the blazing sun of the equator, or the frigid regions of the north, hold no terrors.

Regardless of surroundings, their creed is "Service", and to-day there are millions of owners who will testify to the fact that they are living up to that creed.

The half civilized natives of India find it to their advantage to use them; the missionaries in China and the Jungles of Africa say they cannot do without them. In the training camps of America, England and Italy they were indispensable. On the battlefields of France they were doing the lion's share—Forging on through mud, wrecks, shell holes and entanglements—Going where others dared not venture.

Once they were considered an experiment, a rich man's luxury; to-day they are considered a positive necessity. Merchants, doctors, lawyers, farmers, and men in every walk of life, have figured them a paying investment. More business, more rest and a bigger, broader vision of life and people, are some of the dividends these people are receiving.

We are ready and willing to prove to you the following statement: No matter what kind of roads you have to travel, you can drive a Ford car over them easier, quicker, cheaper and safer than you can drive a team of horses and a rig over them.

Business, pleasure, time, convenience, recreation and necessity demand that you have a car. Ask the automobile owner's advice on buying a car, it doesn't matter whether he owns a Ford or not, he will tell you nine times out of ten to buy a FORD.

When you buy from us it is our business to stand behind the car and see that you get the service which is due you. Our garage service is complete.

We are urging you to buy now: Spring will soon be here and it will be next to impossible for us to make prompt deliveries then.
